Must Have More Homes

The Building Trades Council struck the keynote to the solution of many troubles Saturday when it decided to raise a fund of half a million to loan to those who desired to build homes. Not only are the homes much needed, but the construction of them will give employment to all classes of tradesmen as well as start a building boom with others. A demand for building material means work for the railroads and all means of transportation, as well, and a relief from the scarcity in housing means better sanitary conditions for families of tenants. Owners of vacant lots will be able to negotiate loans to build at reasonable rates, according to this action, and we may look for a general brightening up of conditions in general.

Mawkish Sentiment for the Criminals

Some of the daily papers fairly slop over in printing sob stories of the criminal who is caught, convicted and brought to face punishment. These men and young men are dangerous to society and should be locked up where they cannot endanger the lives of others. We would suggest that the sympathy goes to their victims who are shot or beaten up by the highwaymen; to the man whose goods are stolen and receives no compensation for them, or for those who are compelled to suffer as the wives and children of their victims. Last week an Englewood man was buried who after two years of suffering died from injuries received in a holdup. Dozens of men are in the insane asylums, victims of the thugs' blackjacks and gunshots, yet we hear little sympathy for them or their bereaved families. We are glad that State's Attorney Crow has gotten after this class of criminals, and Charlie Fitzmorris and his men are bringing them in to him so fast that fifteen courts are necessary to clear the docket. After a time, the criminal element will be made to understand that they are "without the law" and are not even "movie" heroes, and a good long term in Joliet will give them a chance to perfect their reform. Sympathy is wasted on them and but serves to continue the evil courses of this element who deserve nothing but punishment, just and severe, that their would-be followers may profit by.

6½% AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

The Morals Court: Its Tragedies and Comedies

Judge Wells M. Cook, of the Morals court, is to be the speaker at the open forum of the Normal Park Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30. His topic will be "The Morals Court: Its Tragedies and Comedies." Opportunity for questions from the floor will be given following Judge Cook's address. Many people who have been interested in the humanizing of the court represented by the development of the Municipal court, particularly in such branches as that over which Judge Cook presides, will welcome this opportunity to hear him tell of the lights and shadows of the task. Many grim tragedies come to light, and not a few sparkling comedies are disclosed in the work of the Morals court. A most cordial invitation to be present is extended to all who are interested. The church is located at the corner of 70th st. and Stewart ave.

The program will be furnished by Miss Norma Altmatt, violinist, and Miss Gordon, contralto. Both of these artists are professionals and the program will be very attractive. The public is invited to these concerts.

Children's Chapel at Normal Park Baptist Church

One of the appalling revelations of the Interchurch Survey was that Protestant churches, taken the country over, give only 24 hours per year to the religious instruction of their youth. The church does not and cannot give religious instruction; indeed the churches demand that the state shall not attempt it. Yet all recognize that religious education is imperative; without the inculcation of righteousness the nation itself is in danger. "Educate men without religion, and you make them but clever devils," said the Duke of Wellington. Many churches are feeling more strongly than formerly that their demand for the privilege of providing religious education lays them under obligation to make good. Normal Park Baptist church is one of those churches, and in order to do the work more adequately a "children's chapel" will be conducted every school day morning at the church, from 8:25 to 8:40—that is, for fifteen minutes each morning as the children are on their way to school. They will be released promptly so that they may reach school on time. The program will be interesting, worth while, and pedagogical. The teaching will be scriptural and entirely non-sectarian, and all will be welcome. Send the children.

This opera will have in its cast some of the most prominent singers of Englewood and its vicinity: Zohdah, daughter of the Shah, Lorna Anderson; Loh-lah, Zohdah's friend and confidante, Virginia Tidd; Nowobeh, Zohdah's old nurse, Emma Curtin; Ted Harding and Billy Cummings, American free lance mining engineers, C. W. Waugh and Webster Smith; Samuel Johnson Jackson, a gentleman of color from Texas, U. S. A., Ted's and Billy's servant, Dr. Selby Finn; Perunah, the Shah, Mr. Harlow; Some Craba, an Arab sheik, Geo. Gordon. The chorus will be composed of members of the club and their husbands. Catherine Emerson Manz is the musical director.

The proceeds of this opera will be used entirely for charity, a part of which will be given to aid the new Child Welfare Station.

Real Activities at Ogden Park

An infant welfare station is to be opened at Ogden Park within the next two weeks. The date of opening and the hours for consultation will be announced soon. Mrs. C. H. Brown, who is organizing the work for this station, plans a large entertainment and program to celebrate its establishment.

The moving picture entertainment for Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, was the film, "The Secret Garden," with Lila Lee starring. In addition there was a comedy of Fatty Arbuckle's.

The children's operetta, "Miss Muffett Lost and Found," is to be presented on Monday evening, Feb. 14th. Tickets may be obtained through the director of Ogden Park. Children will not be admitted unless accompanied by adults.

Men who are interested in social dancing are reminded that there is a special class arranged for them every Tuesday night at 7:15. Beginners can come in at any time.

On Tuesday night, Feb. 1st, there was a large Boy Scout exhibition in the field house.

The boys and girls of the neighborhood are invited to enter the reading contest which is being held in connection with the story hour. Ask for a list of books suitable for your grade and be enrolled at the story hour on Tuesday or Friday at 4 o'clock. In the attendance contest, the Perkins-Bass is ahead and the Altgeld second, with the D. S. Wentworth a close third.

The standing in the grammar school basketball league, including the games of Jan. 29th, leaves the Bass school in the lead with a percentage of 890 points. The Earle is second with 2884, the Copernicus third.

Owing to changes in the city library the Ogden Park branch will operate fewer hours than it has up to this time. On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays it will be open from 1 to 9 in the evening. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays it will be open from 9 in the morning until 6 in the evening.

Adapted from the story by WILLIAM J. NEIDIG
Directed by SAM WOOD Photoplay by ALICE EYTON

Here is a picture that is as American as the Statue of Liberty. It tells the wholesome story of the uphill work a snob has in a real American college. It is just chock-full of joy-of-life, and the action is as thrilling as a big football game. In fact, one of the big scenes in the picture is a football game. "The Snob," with Wanda Hawley as the heroine is a picture that nobody can resist, for in it are the charm of clean youth and love and fun

"MIDSUMMER MADNESS"

With
Lois Wilson, Lila Lee, Jack Holt and Conrad Nagel

Adapted from the Novel, "His Friend and His Wife," by Cosmo Hamilton

"Midsummer Madness" is the real, human stuff of which great pictures are made. William DeMille has produced an ideal combination of rich background and deeply appealing story. Also, he has handled a delicate theme delicately.

The story centers around two young married couples. Daisy Osborn is too devoted to her husband, Julian. He longs for new worlds and women to conquer. Bob Meredith is not devoted enough to his wife, Margaret. She longs for romance. For a time she seems to find it in Julian, and under the spell of a moonlit midsummer midnight, she is led into an indiscretion that threatens, when it comes to the ears of a professional scandal-monger, to ruin four lives. But light dawns upon Bob Meredith, and tragedy is averted.

Mr. DeMille seems in this picture to have introduced a camera within the four walls of two typical American homes of the better sort. It is this true-to-lifeness that gives "Midsummer Madness" its terrific punch and appeal.

Read New York Press Comments on Wm. De Mille's Production "MIDSUMMER MADNESS"

American: "The most gripping and most essentially human document that has been seen on the screen for some time."

Daily News: "The greatest motion picture this season, has been perfectly cast, well acted, and is provided with everything to make it a perfect photoplay."

Telegram: "Unquestionably the greatest legitimate dramatic production the screen has ever seen."

Englewood High School Gleanings

The enrollment this week was 2,712 on Wednesday and shows promise of an increase. Nearly 600 freshmen have entered.

The "Reporter"

For the first time in the history of the Englewood High School a student publication is being printed on the school press. The "Reporter," a weekly newspaper, which appears three times each month, is now on the press. Miss Ruth Freeman is the editor; Mr. Bertram Moss is business manager, and Ralph Helperin is managing editor. Mr. Fred Broderson, instructor in the new department of printing, is chairman of the printing committee.

Alumni News

The alumni association held a most interesting meeting Friday evening, Jan. 28th, in the new assembly hall. The introduction of the alumni who graduated the night before created great amusement for the audience. Without any warning the class was asked to give proof of its right to active membership by calling upon its most active members. Among those who responded convincingly were Melville Vahquette, Vera Smith, Clarence Boettinger, Margaret Davis, Louise Sasso, and Arthur Sarvers.

Before the program the classes of 1912, 1913 and 1914 held a "get together" dinner in the teachers' lunch room. The spirit of enthusiasm caught them all. Mr. James Evans of 1912 was responsible for the success of the dinner. Another class gave a dinner at the Tudor

Dr. Stair of the Baptist church was the speaker of the evening. Every alumnus was glad to hear his inspiring talk. Mr. Armstrong, without whom no alumni gathering can be complete, spoke of the development of the school and of what the alumni can do. Mr. Roy Battis presented a plan for an entertainment course that will help the alumni meet oftener and will lay material foundation for an alumni fund. The organization is anxious to support two scholarships at the university.

Miss Ellen Young and Mr. Carl Zeitler, both of the class of 1920, helped make the program a real treat. Miss Young sang two charming solos and Mr. Zeitler delighted the audience with two fine numbers for the violin.

David Lipman (1913) and his brother, Abe (1916) are conducting six millinery shops in Chicago and one in Phoenix, Ariz.

Henry Thompson, who won second prize in the competition for a school song, is now an instructor in athletics with the Y. M. C. A. in Coblenz. He is teaching the children of officers and has organized the Rhineland troop of Boy Scouts of America.

Miss Josephine Campbell (1917) has recently been appointed an instructor in the gymnasium at the Carl Shurz high school.

An Englewood Telephone Directory

The need of a local telephone directory has been long felt, and the Englewood Advertising Service, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olson, Englewood people, the latter a graduate of Englewood High, have begun the work of providing such a volume. It will be very complete and contain besides the names of every telephone subscriber, many matters of local interest and service, and every house will be provided with a copy free of cost. Advertisements will be accepted for the alternate pages, and they are receiving liberal patronage from our merchants. You will be solicited for space within a short time, and we warn our readers to be sure that you deal with the right parties, as another and foreign concern is attempting the like work. Mr. and Mrs. Olson are deserving of your patronage, as they are local people, working on a purely local enterprise. Their offices are at 718 W. 63rd St., phone Wentworth 249.

Park Needed in South District

The large park idea is a live issue. It never was a dead one.

Four thousand people have spoken to the South Park Commissioners through petitions. Four civic organizations with a total membership approximating one thousand voters have supported and endorsed those petitions and the churches of the district, through their ministers, have earnestly urged compliance, and last but by no means least, the entire weekly press of the thirty-second ward is unanimously, earnestly, persistently and convincingly waging a friendly but none the less aggressive campaign for the rights of the people west of State St.

A large park has more than been paid for through sixty years of continuous park taxation. If the goods are to be delivered, cash has been paid in advance, necessity demands that they be delivered now.

Next year will probably be too late owing to the prospective building boom making impossible the securing of land at reasonable prices and two years from now may see the park funds "swallowed up" (or down) by the "lake front."

We are in a stabilizing period and a more equitable expenditure of South Park funds as between the lake front and the west half of the South Park district—that territory west of State St.—should prevail.

The tender of a 20-acre playground as the central park improvement of one of the greatest and wealthiest wards of the great city of Chicago is but a crumb when the sixty years of taxation is considered. The closing of a half-section line street as proposed in tendering that playground is equivalent to taking away the crumb. Not only that, it is directly contrary to the policy of the city of Chicago, the South Park Commissioners being fully informed, to close any section or half section line street. It has been for years the policy of the local transportation committee of the city council to reserve such streets for car line purposes. Will the members of the city council support their local transportation committee? Certainly they will. It is not only their duty but their pleasure to do so.

The petition as presented to the South Park Commission, signed by four thousand people, residents of the thirty-second ward, prays for a park that will be of service to and accommodate the children of six schools, four public and two parochial, while the proposed location of the 20-acre playground will accommodate but one school. The South Park Commissioners certainly will not disregard the children. The children of today will be the taxpayers of tomorrow; their parents and grandparents have been west-of-State-Street taxpayers for sixty years.

The twenty-ninth, thirtieth and thirty-first wards, which with the thirty-second comprise the great southwest side, are not disinterested. Our fight for development and beautification is their fight. Our success is for their benefit. Our gain is their gain. A boulevard drive to the southern sections of the city will afford those wards an outlet they do not now possess.

Present plans mean even more. They mean a direct connection with the Forest Preserve System (outer park belt) via Loomis Blvd. to the West 87th St. Forest Preserve drive, 100 feet wide and twelve miles long.

Nature has deprived the southwest side of the lake as a beautifier. Hence all the more reason for extensive park and boulevard beautification west of State St.

Let the twenty-ninth, thirtieth, and thirty-first wards awake to the realization now, before it is too late, that our campaign for boulevard extensions and park development west of State St. is their campaign.

Boy Scouts 11 Years Old

For eleven years the Boy Scout movement has held the attention of the boys of America. Its program has been adopted in schools, churches, parks, clubs, etc., from Alaska to the gulf and the Atlantic to the Pacific. The week of Feb. 6-12 will be observed as Boy Scout birthday week. During this week the merchants throughout the southwest district have been asked to speak a good word for the movement in their advertisements. The pastors are planning special services in their respective churches for Sunday, Feb. 6th, for the boys as well as adults. Information regarding the scout organization will be given in sermons at these services. The following have announced their services for the Scout Sunday, Feb. 6th:

Emerald Avenue Presbyterian church, 67th St. and Emerald Ave., will hold a special service in the morning, 10:30 o'clock.

The Hope Presbyterian church, 62nd St. and Loomis Ave., will also have a service in the morning.

Green Street Congregational church, 56th and Green Sts., will observe Boy Scout Sunday in the evening.

During the week some troops will hold parents' night.

Troop 613 will entertain the parents at a banquet at their headquarters, Ogden Park M. E. church, 68th St. and Loomis Blvd., on Thursday evening, Feb. 10th.

Troop 650 will entertain parents at Auburn Park Masonic hall, 78th and Union Ave., on Friday, Feb. 11th.

Troop 625 will award a silver cup at a parents' rally on Feb. 14th at Calvary M. E. church, 78th and Morgan Sts., to the patrol winning the highest number of points in a contest which closes that night.

Troop 608 Winner in Ridge Contest

Ridge field house was the scene of a very successful contest in knot tying, first aid and signalling, when Troop 608 of St. Paul's Union church carried off the honors. Mr. F. F. Bradley was in charge.

Englewood Kiwanis Go Visiting

Englewood Kiwanians put in a busy week last week visiting and assisting sister organizations in their charter presentations.

Last Wednesday evening a number of members journeyed over to the South Shore Country Club to participate in the ceremonies at the Woodlawn Club charter presentation which occurred in the presence of an assembly of about four hundred men.

One of the features of the evening was a graphic lecture on the deep waterway project by Alderman Ross Woodhull, who has studied this matter from all angles and made a very interesting explanation of the waterway and harbor proposals from Chicago's standpoint. His talk was explained and illustrated by specially prepared maps which made a very interesting exposition.

On Friday night some thirty members of Englewood club made a noticeable group at the banquet tendered to the officers of Kiwanis International, which was held at the Morrison hotel. On this occasion one of the features of the evening was the presentation of the charter to the North Shore Club, by International President Mercer Barnett of Alabama.

The regular weekly meeting of Englewood Club held Tuesday at the Campus Court was well attended and addressed by Mr. Lichtenstein of the First National Bank of Chicago, who spoke on the present financial situation of the world.

A real modern up-to-the-minute burlesque show is promised to the patrons of the Englewood theatre when the "Sweet Sweeties" begin an engagement of one week on Sunday, Feb. 6th. This show, it is claimed, is absolutely new as far as material and lyrics are concerned. The first act is entitled "Japanese Jazz" and the second "A Japanese Honeymoon." The piece will be presented in eight spectacular and elaborate scenes, one of them alone, called the "Powder Puff Follies," is said to have cost $25,000 to stage. In the cast of "Sweet Sweeties" are Ed. "Bozo" Fox, Joe Young, Ed. Jordan, Marion Lawrence, Harry Morrissey, Fannie Vedder, Lawrence Clark, Flossie De Vere and the Bernard Sisters, besides sixteen chic and sprightly members of the chorus.

Woodlawn Theatre

Manager Karzas of the Woodlawn, true to his reputation to have all of the best and latest pictures, announces for the coming week, beginning Sunday, the engagement of De Mille's great picture, "Mid-Summer Madness." It is a breath-taking story and a brilliant cast are the combination promised in William De Mille's latest picture, "Mid-Summer Madness," coming to the Woodlawn theatre for the week commencing Sunday next, Feb. 6th.

Conrad Nagel and Lila Lee in a scene from William DeMille's production "Midsummer Madness" A Paramount Picture

The story was adapted from Cosmo Hamilton's novel, "His Friend and His Wife." Mr. Hamilton is well known as the author of "Scandal," "The Blindness of Virtue," and many other successful plays and stories.

The plot centers around two young married couples who are close friends. One of the wives is so lavish with the outward expressions of her love for her husband that he becomes a bit tired of her. Now that she is so completely won he longs for new fields to conquer. His friend's wife, on the other hand, is blessed with a husband who is more interested in business than in her; she craves romance. So the overloved husband and his friend's underloved wife are attracted to each other. In a moment of folly they commit an indiscretion that nearly ruins four lives.

The cast of "Mid-Summer Madness" includes such sterling screen players as Lois Wilson, Jack Holt, Lila Lee and Conrad Nagel. The picture has been sumptuously produced and abounds in moments of unusual dramatic strength.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Manager Harry Mitchell of the Empress theatre, with his usual enterprise, has secured for all of the coming week, Bee Palmer, Englewood's own girl, coming direct from the Palace and Majestic theatres, the very latest sensation in vaudeville with her own Jazz Band, and Al Spoigel, the rag time pianist who will begin Sunday and remain with us for a week. These stars, with five other good acts and pictures, will make the Empress bill for the coming week one of unusual interest and merit. Ladies' matinee every day, 25 cents. Continuous at night from 7:30 until 11 except Saturday and Sunday; these two nights are two shows afternoon and night.

The Empress theatre is drawing extraordinary crowds at this season. In fact they have gained over the attendance of the early summer when they closed for the heated season, and the beautiful new decorations are a source of delight as the effect upon the entrance is at once joyous and cheerful.

The programs arranged by Manager Mitchell are away above any before attempted in any outside failing source of enjoyment, and house, and the top liner attractions of the best "loop" houses are seen riety of entertainment is a never- instead of the regular routine of hoop rolling, a contortionist and a bar act, every variety of performance will be seen at the Empress with grand musical features incorporating. From the best of grand opera to the jaziest jazz, from the dear old melodies of our grandmother's days to the latest songs of the period, and from every instrument from the piccolo to the latest saxaphone, the one stringed Chinese fiddle to the richest violincello and interspersed with these comes acts of wonder, athletic, and mystifying, as well as feats of strength and daring. In all the Empress programs are calculated and studied to please everyone at all times, and blase indeed must be the man or woman who cannot enjoy an afternoon or evening at this excellent house. The pictures are good first view features

NEW REGENT

The New Regent's continuous success is a tribute as to what Manager James E. Coston knows about pleasing his audiences with good pictures of the highest grade. Most of the pictures now shown at the New Regent are first runs in Englewood and of the highest class obtainable.

For tomorrow, Saturday, Feb. 5th, continuous from 2 to 11:30 p. m., comes the adorable Wanda Hawley, in the best of American plays, "The Snob," a comedy of youth and love and college days in a typical American college. It is a picture which will make everyone who sees it proud to be an American, for it proves that a true American can't be a snob even if she tries. Wanda Hawley is the appealing heroine of "The Snob." Also International News, Snub Pollard Comedy and for matinee, Eddie Polo in "King of the Circus."

For Sunday, Feb. 6th, continuous from 2 to 11:30 p. m., as a special production of William Taylor's "The Furnace." If you are considering matrimony—wait! Before you take the plunge, see "The Furnace." It is a story of a couple who thought marriage would be a comfortable hearth fire, and it turned out to be a roaring furnace. It is a picture which every man and woman should see. It portrays some of the most vital problems in life. Every person in this city will be the better for seeing "The Furnace." Also a scream two-part comedy, Pathe News, matinee only, "Ruth of the Rockies."

THOMAS MEIGHAN

On Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 7th and 8th, matinee and night, comes Thomas Meighan in "The Frontier of the Stars." In this remarkable photoplay, Mr. Meighan appears as a Bowery gangster—one of the toughest roles he has ever played in pictures. He engages in desperate fist fights and one of these, in which several well known ring fighters take part is said to be one of the most thrilling contests ever screened. As "Buck" Leslie, Mr. Meighan does some remarkably effective character work and it is quite likely this will be hailed as one of the best screen portraits seen by film fans in many a day. Also a screen two-part comedy, topical news and events as they are seen today.

National Theatre

"Marry The Poor Girl"

Manager Cliff Hastings saw "Marry the Poor Girl" when it was playing in New York and directly he learned that the stock rights had been secured by The Century Play Company, one of that city, got in touch with them in order to arrange for the earliest possible presentation of this big laugh hit in this city. Local theatre-goers are to be congratulated upon his aggressiveness and the success of his errand.

Mr. Howard Hall, the popular leading man of the National Theatre players, and Miss Dixie Dow, who has an equal host of friends, both declare that the parts of Jack and Julia, which have been assigned to them, are the best comedy opportunities they have had in many seasons. Such an attitude on the part of a performer is always indicative of a splendid performance. And this same spirit is being shown by every member of the company since there is not a part in "Marry the Poor Girl" but is a good one, an unusual thing in farce because of the fact that minor and inconsequential characters are often introduced to make situations or complications. "Marry the Poor Girl" will play at the National theatre all next week without an increase in the popular scale of prices at this well known playhouse.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Under the change of local managers the Marlowe hippodrome is meeting with great success. The Pantages circuit of all the big time acts pleases the audience and the pictures are the best procurable. Five big acts in addition to pictures every night, and six of the best for the Saturday and Sunday specials. Get the Marlowe habit and you will see the best of shows at all times.

Beginning the coming week a new era of vaudeville bookings will govern at the Marlowe Hippodrome and the Pantages circuit will hereafter supply the talent. All lovers of sprightly vaudeville know that the Pantages bookings are the best procurable and with a variety and versatility that few agencies are able to compete with. Owing to the hour of our going to press being somewhat early, we are unable to give the attractions for this week, or for Saturday and Sunday, but both Mr. Koffman and Mr. Plough, the proprietors, are making the bookings, and it would be illegal to find two more capable or competent men in that line, both being producers and owners in the vaudeville field for many years and at the head of the list of 100.

The regular program of the Marlowe for Mondays are specialty vaudeville acts, as well as the best of exclusive photoplays, a comedy and travelogues. For Tuesdays, they offer besides the usual photoplays, two song publishers' revues, as well as local song contests. On Wednesdays and Thursdays are seven vaudeville acts and a first showing photoplay selected as well as comedies and news of the day. On Friday they have a fine professional vaudeville revue, including seven or more acts, including the latest and best from the big circuits. On Saturdays and Sundays six of the highest class vaudeville acts, photoplays and comedy and travel pictures of special merit. Complete changes of programs are made every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Continuous performances Sunday from 2 to 11 o'clock and always a children's matinee on Saturday afternoon.

Manager Coston offers some fine attractions for the coming week. Beginning with today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 4th and 5th, the favorite star, Thomas Meighan, in a thrilling and appealing play, "The Frontier of the Stars." On the top of the world! One a reckless gangster, fleeing from the law. The other as pure as the moonlight that fell on the roof where she lived with her invalid's dreams. Was there hope or love for either? That day when the big fight came—Come and fill your heart with the rest! Also the unusually funny Christie special comedy, "Shuffle Queens." Pathe News and Saturday matinee, "The Veiled Mystery."

On Sunday, Feb. 6th, one day only, continuous from 2 to 11:30 p. m., a genuine treat, H. B. Warner in "When We Were Twenty-One," from Nat Goodwin's famous stage success.

"To dream long dreams of beauty, power and love,
From forms of love that never will grow old,
To catch all life's quintessence in an hour,
Give me the days when I was twenty-one."

A play of a youth lured by a siren's smiles and wiles, flesh called, youth plunged in. How was he saved from his own folly? A real romance for those who are twenty-one and older. Also a good two-part comedy and travel pictures and News.

NAZIMOVA

On Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 7th and 8th, matinee and night, the greatest of the beautiful Wanda Hawley's plays, "The Snob." A great American picture that is best befitting of the present day. Quite a number of ex-college folk interpret "The Snob," a William J. Neidig Saturday Evening Post campus story which is at the Harvard theatre Monday and Tuesday for a two days' run. Wanda Hawley, the vivacious young star in this Realart picture, is from the University of Washington; Richard Wayne, University of Nebraska; Allan Connor, University of Southern California, and Julia Fayne, University of Illinois. Also an extra fine two-part comedy, travel pictures and Pathe News.

As a double feature Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 9th and 10th, matinee and night, comes the incomparable Nazimova in her latest screen play, "Billions," the fascinating drama of a woman who dared all for love. It is yet another Nazimova who appears in "Billions"—a Nazimova more fascinating, more intense, more varied, in fact, than she has ever seemed before. The latest photodramatic vehicle of the phenomenal Russian star will be shown at the Harvard theatre, where it begins a run of two days, and the crowded house will attest to the astonishing popularity of this woman who has been called the world's greatest actress.

Also the world's greatest acrobatic comedian, Larry Semon, in his two-part special comedy, "The Sportsman."

New Books at Hiram Kelly Library

Found! In the public library, just the book you have heard so much about and wanted so much to read. "Main Street," by Sinclair Lewis. The American small town we've all lived in some time or other. We recognize the streets and know the people and we sympathize with the doctor's eager young bride in her disheartening first view and her years of revolt against the town's complacent ugliness. A nice sense of humor presents the town and Carol without preaching at either but a nice sense of human values shows Carol gradually "growing in grace" to the point where she realizes that after all Gopher Prairie, Minn., will find and achieve its own beauty from within and perhaps she and her children may have a small part in the finding.

Other new books which will interest all alert people, and may be found on the shelves at Hiram Kelly Library, are:

Novels

Galsworthy, In Chancery; Poole, Blind; Burroughs, Tarzan the Untamed; Porter, Egan; Wiley, The Wildcat; Sullivan, The Rapids; Tompkins, Joanna Builds a Nest; Masters, Mitch Miller; Olmstead, Stafford's Island; Sinclair, The Quiet; Pryde, Marqueray's Duel; Bojer, Life; Onions, Bridge of Kisses; Sedgwick, Third Window; Hickson, Love of Brothers; Bailey, Trumpeter Swan; Jepson, Loudwater Mystery; Glasgow, The Builders; Dostoevski, The Idiot; Swinnerton, September; White, Rose Dawn; Witwer, There's No Base Like Home; Cohen, Come Seven; McSpadden, Famous detective stories; Fox, Erskine Dale; Mason, The Summons; Wolf, Night and Day; Mundy, Ivory Trail; Cooperus, The Inevitable; Wharton, The Age of Innocence; McKenna, Lady Lilith; Johnston, Mrs. Warren's Daughter; McGrath, Drums of Jeopardy; Dell, Moon-Calf; McCutcheon, West Wind Drift.

Cash Value of Bolt.

It has been estimated by an European scientist that the commercial value of the electricity in a flash of lightning lasting one one-thousandth of a second is 29 cents.

HEMPHILL EXPLAINS ORGANIZATION OF NEAR EAST RELIEF

Prominent New York Banker Says Aim Is 100% Relief of Starving Peoples.

"Just what is the Near East Relief? Is the question that many people are asking whose interests have been awakened to the terrible conditions existing in the Levant today," says Alexander J. Hemphill, President of the Guarantee Trust Company and well known New York banker and financier. "In prosaic facts, the Near East Relief is a body incorporated by act of Congress the object of which is 'to provide relief and to assist in the repatriation, rehabilitation and re-establishment of suffering and dependent people of the Near East and adjacent areas; to provide for the care of orphans and widows and to promote the social, economic and industrial welfare of those who have been rendered destitute or dependent, directly or indirectly, by the vicissitudes of war, the cruelties of men or other causes beyond their control.'

ALEXANDER J. HEMPHILL.

100 Per Cent Relief.

"The aim of the organization is 100 per cent relief, the relief which puts those aided on a self-supporting basis, which instills in them a confidence for the future, places in their hands the means with which to begin life anew, and in their hearts the courage to go on. Work, that is the prescription subscribed and provided by those loyal men and women who have journeyed into perilous places for the sake of their fellow men: to make these people independent for the future, to encourage the flickering fire of national pride.

"There are 82,291 workers employed in the industrial establishments of the Near East Relief, where wool is furnished for the women to spin and weave, and all the girls who are strong enough are washing wool, sewing beds, grinding and sifting wheat, tailoring and learning to make lace. The big problem is to make these women independent.

"About 500 American men and women, Near East Relief workers, are now in the field, including 36 eminent physicians and surgeons, 76 nurses, 7 mechanics, 15 industrial experts, 16 agriculturists, 14 bacteriologists, 197 relief workers, 25 supply and transport workers, 19 teachers, 20 administrators, 34 secretaries, 7 engineers and 45 army officers.

Where Money Goes.

"Funds for relief purposes are distributed in two ways: First, the various relief centers are authorized by the Executive Committee to draw sight drafts on New York for specific amounts each month; second, by supplies purchased in America, the major portion of which are shipped to the committee warehouses at Derindje, and the remainder either to Beyrouth or Batoum.

"The relief is rapidly expanding and meeting the situation, but the future depends on the continuation of American support."

According to Mr. Hemphill, the need for American help to see the destitute peoples of the Near East through the crisis of present conditions is greater now than ever before on account of the uncertainty as to the future, the truculence of the Turkish government and the danger of bolshevism from Russia, which threatens to engulf the whole of Armenia.

Who Direct the Work.

Mr. Hemphill is the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Near East Relief. Other members are Dr. James L. Barton, Secretary of the Foreign Department of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; Edwin M. Bulkley, banker, of Spencer Trask & Co., New York; Judge Abram I. Elkus, former United States Ambassador to Turkey; Harold A. Hatch, a well known New York cotton man; Herbert Hoover; William R. Millar, one of the Secretaries of the Interchurch World Movement; Henry Morgenthau, United States Ambassador to Mexico; Edgar Rickard of the American Relief Administration; Charles V. Vickrey, who is Secretary of the Near East Relief, and Dr. Stanley White, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

Mandeville's Giraffe.

Sir John Mandeville, in his "Travels," gives this description of a giraffe, which he calls "Gerfauntz" or "Orafies": "A beast spotted, and that is a little more high than a steed, but he hath a neck twenty cubits long, and he may look over a great high house."

"THE SNOB"

A comedy of youth and love and college days in a typical American college. It is a picture which will make everyone who sees it proud to be an American, for it proves that a true American can't be a snob even if she tries. It is a comedy in which laughs are thicker than snowflakes. If you have not already lost your heart to sunny-haired Wanda Hawley you will lose it beyond recovery in "The Snob."

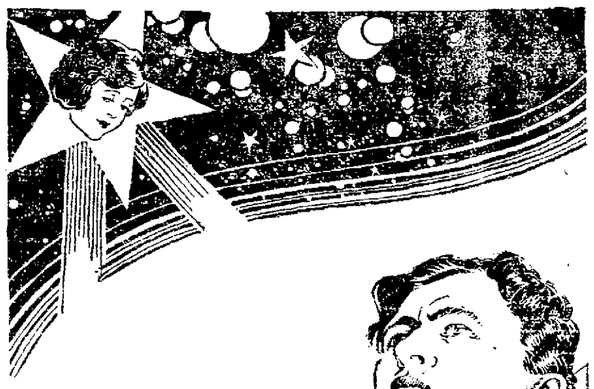
THOMAS MEIGHAN

—IN—

"The Frontier of the Stars"

Adapted from the magazine serial by Albert Payson Terhune



In this remarkable photoplay, Mr. Meighan appears as a Bowery gangster—one of the toughest roles he has ever played in pictures. He engages in desperate fist fights and one of these, in which several well known ring fighters take part is said to be one of the most thrilling contests ever screened. As "Buck" Leslie, Mr. Meighan does some remarkably effective character work and it is quite likely this will be hailed as one of the best screen portraits seen by film fans in many a day.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Some Poetry, by Gee

One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er:
My taxes are higher this spring
Than they've ever been before.

Ducks fly ninety miles an hour,
Ninety-two reels off the goose;
Hawks have ever greater power,
Money flies—but what's the use?

A merchant had a lot of goods
He wished to quickly sell;
He advertised in Englewood Times
And then they went like
h—h-hot cakes!

The early robin is liable to get chillblains if he don't watch out.

Speaking of profiteering, did you ever notice the heavy lead wrapper used on the $2.00-a-pound smoking tobacco, and then the heavy paper that covers it all?

What's the use of an ambitious boy studying to be a pirate or even a hold-up man when he can get over half a million a year as a city expert? Chicago had two of them last year.

A Milwaukee boy told his teacher that his sister had the measles. "You go right home, Johnny," she said, "and don't come back until your sister is well." Johnny left in a hurry. After he was gone another little boy held up his hand and said: "Teacher, Johnny Dolan's sister what has the measles lives in Philadelphia."

An Englishman was boasting to an Irishman about the fastness of English trains. "Why, Pat," said the Englishman, "we run our trains so fast in England that the telegraph poles look like a continuous fence." "Do they now?" said Pat. "Well, sir, I was on a train wan day in Ireland, and we passed first a field of turnips, then wan of carrots, then wan of cabbage and a large pond of water and we were going so fast that it looked like soup."

J. L. Ross hired a German boy to preside over his palatial soda fountain, and the youth soon learned to deal with patrons who never know their own minds about the kind of sirup they want. The following is a verbatim account of his experience one warm day this spring: "Plain soda," said a stout woman, entering in great haste. "You haf vanilla, or you haf lemon?" calmly inquired the Teutonic lad. "Plain so-da—without sirup! Didn't you understand me?" demanded the stout woman, testily. "Yes, I understand," came from the boy, whose placid German countenance did not change in expression, "but vot kind of sirup you vant him mitout? Mitout vanilla, or mituot lemon?"

Casey says: "Marriage is a process by which a woman tries to get a job as boss."

The nicest valentine we know of is printed on paper with a green tinge and has a pretty engraved "V" or "X" on the corners. Even those with a "I" don't look so bad these days.

Pat, having breakfast in a city hotel the other morning, had two eggs put before him. He found one of those very bad, and pushed it away from him with an air of disgust. Then the attentive waiter appeared and asked, "Egg bad, sir?" "Rotten!" snapped Pat. "Sorry, sir," said the waiter, "shall I open the other one?" "Begob, ye won't," was the emphatic reply, "but ye'll open the winda if ye plaze."

Sending a few booze venders to the Bridewell for two each, changes the complexion of the act, and is instilling some fear in the hearts of the offenders. At the price they are selling the rotten stuff they can afford to pay fines, but serving a strong prison term is a different matter.

In China when the subscriber rings up exchange the operator may be expected to say: "What number does the honorable son of the moon and stars desire?" "Hohi, two-three." Silence; then the exchange resumes: "Will the honorable person graciously forgive the inadequacy of the insignificent service and permit this humbled slave of the wire to inform him that the never to be sufficiently censured line is busy?"

An hotel porter found a man roaming the halls late at night arrayed in his pajamas. "Here," he shouted, grasping the man by the arm, "what are you doing here?" The man gave a start, blinked his eyes, and said: "I—I am a somnambulist." The porter grasped him still more firmly by the arm and said: "You get back to your own room. You can't run around the halls in your night clothes, no matter what your religion is."

Mike's eyes glistened as his friend Pat brought out the bottle. "Shure now, Mick, say when," Pat remarked as he slowly poured. Time passed, but as Mick remained tongue tied Pat stopped and stared. "Begorra, say when. Can't ye see Oi'm pouring out?" remarked Pat, letting a few more drops fall. "Wh-wh-wh-wh-when," exclaimed Mick at last. "Shure, Oi didn't know yer stammered," remarked Pat, attending to his own glass. "Bedad, Oi don't, as a rule," replied Mick, smiling, "but shure now, Oi can't help it on special occasions."

Englewood Woman's Club

The Englewood Woman's Club held its regular meeting Monday, Jan. 31st. The department of music had charge of the morning program. Mr. William Weil, director of the Chicago Band, gave a history of this organization and its mission. Music was furnished by members of the band.

Mr. J. Paul Goode, listed as the speaker for the afternoon, was unable to be present because of illness. Instead of this speaker, Mr. Roy O. Wyland, manager of United Americans, an organization devoted to patriotic and educational work among un-Americanised immigrants, spoke.

The next club meeting will be Feb. 7th. The department of literature will have charge of the morning session. An interesting program is provided, consisting of the February number of "The Colonist," and original poems by club members, Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. Frank W. Main. Other numbers are "The Forerunners of Our Famous New England Poets," Mrs. R. E. Holmes; "The Mother of American Sculpture," Mrs. George H. Nash, and book reviews by Mrs. Walter Scott and Mrs. Charles Tidholm. The afternoon program will be furnished by Mr. Frank V. Dudley, artist, and Malda Lewis Dudley, soprano.

At a recent exhibition at the Art Institute Mr. Dudley was awarded the Frank A. Logan prize of $500 for his picture, "Dune'and." The chairmen of art departments of the third district will be guests of honor.

University Course Lectures

On Thursday, Feb. 10th, Mr. Bertram G. Nelson will complete his course of dramatic recitals at the Normal Park center with a reading of Shakespeare's "Hamlet." Mr. Nelson's course has been very popular, as evidenced by the large attendance each week. On Feb. 17th Dr. J. Paul Goode of the University of Chicago will begin a course of illustrated lectures on "People and Problems of Other Lands." It is believed that these will meet with the same enthusiastic reception that has been accorded the previous courses. Course tickets admitting one person to the six lectures are $2.00, single admission 50 cents, and may be had at the door.

Oak Haven Old Peoples' Home

An immediate appeal for contributions and pledges to make possible the building of the Oakhaven Old People's Home during the current year is being made by members of the woman's auxiliary. A house to house canvass will be instituted Monday, Feb. 7th, on the south side and will eventually be extended so that men and women in all parts of the city will have an opportunity to assist in establishing this much needed institution.

At the meeting of the auxiliary on Thursday, Feb. 3rd, at the Congregational church, Harvard ave. and 64th st., members pledged their efforts to help raise the first $100,000 so that ground may be broken this spring and the central unit of the home erected and in use next winter. A waiting list of 94 elderly persons—for men as well as women will be accommodated—was reported. That husbands may be admitted with their wives under certain circumstances is but one of the many desirable features which will endear Oakhaven to its guests and the community.

With a spacious lot at Western ave. and 113th pl. already bought and with cash and pledges amounting to $34,000 available for a building, officers of the home and the 683 members of the auxiliary welcome contributions to enable the immediate carrying out of the project. The many homes for the aged in Chicago are insufficient to accommodate those needing such shelter. Long waiting lists prove the dire need of adequate provision for these worthy persons.

Plans for the building, which have been approved, call for fire proof construction with face brick exterior, a slate roof, and design which resembles the letter "Y." Erected on the lot, which faces a small park, no more attractive surroundings could be found. The center unit of the building will be given over to administration and public sections with hospital facilities and guest rooms. A large living room, commodious dining rooms and kitchens adequate for the 200 guests which the entire building can accommodate when completed, are included. This central portion can be completed and in operation before the remainder of the building is constructed. The wings will provide living quarters for members and will comprise single and double rooms and sun parlors. These wings are but two stories while the center unit is three stories in height.

Additions to the board of directors of the home include: Mrs. Chas. S. Clark, Mrs. Geo. Haskell, and Geo. W. Dixon. Other directors are: Asa A. Davidson, Chas. S. Deacon, Mrs. W. L. Gregson, Mrs. Henry A. Morgan, Mrs. Chas. S. Woodman, and the officers: Dr. R. A. White, president; Foster Nims, vice-president; E. W. Stansbury, treasurer, and Earl C. Hales, secretary.

Contributions to the building fund may be made payable to Oakhaven Old People's Home, E. W. Stansbury, treasurer. They may be sent to headquarters, 357 W. 63rd st., or given to members of the board or to auxiliary members.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

An overseas get-together night will be in vogue at our next meeting, at Prospect hall, 64th and Ashland ave., Monday evening, Feb. 14th. All ex-service men are requested to call for a review on the bonus question.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, U. S., have been behind that bill in the legislature at Springfield, Ill., for two years and a half; so we feel proud that our efforts have not been in vain as no credit is required in our behalf. We solicit your membership if you have been across in the world war.

This is a good stripe organization and our post has reached our objective of 500 members by the untiring work of our various committees.

Hout's Home Robbed by Dope Fiend

The apartment of Robert S. Houts at 6548 Yale ave., was entered Monday afternoon by a suspected dope fiend who besides mistreating and frightening the lady, carried away a $1,000 lavaliere and rings worth $2,500. Mrs. Houts, who had stepped into the apartment of L. A. Lauritzen, across the hall, for a minute, was attracted by the frantic crying of little Jane, aged two years, and found the maniac, a young pasty-faced man, sitting on the bed that held the baby, and pointing a revolver at her, threatened her life and before she had recovered made his escape. Mrs. Houts fainted.
